

The World In My Hands

Snap!

I danced for a while and my moves would make you smile oh, I loved you then my dear chemical lover You veiled me in your haze like a puppet in your lace amazing disgrace from your silverspoon substance You took me away
made Monday a Saturday
you stained me with love and left me in dirty laundry
but I left my ground for a minute Your body in my veins your power is what remains you know I never had such a bad, bad comedown
My, oh my you took pride in my fuck-up I've been cursed and I've been hailed I have blown it and I've inhaled but I never had
