

Ok, you had sedatives and cold champagne
They say 'that must be the price of fame'
It's not a joke if you can choke on the thought of it
You're not my friend to defend if you're loving it
So come to hurt that you squeeze somebody's hand
It doesn't hurt if you think about all your fans

Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again once the hero's dead

So high, if you think of the fans
So high, if you think of the fans

Ok, they got me filed down in the c.i.a.
They say 'you're worse than manson for the u.s. of a.'
It's not belief if you can see through the source of it
It's only true if you bruise by the bore some ...
So come to hurt that you open up your eyes
It cannot work but it don't make it civilised

Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again once the hero's dead

Ok, so 'time takes your cigarette
They say "puts it in your mouth" and you forget
No longer live 105 can you hear me
The life expectancy of any popularity
So come to hurt that the sideshow bet your life
It doesn't hurt but the rest go nevermind

Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again like it's oxygen
Kiro tv
They got that visions again once the hero's dead
