(Verse) When it's over now Nothing left for the enemy When the show goes down And you silence the melody (That's when you say) I'll be that some boy in Miami Rude boy you in the Kingston Bad boy in New England New York the whole kingdom (Pre-Hook) I ain't got the remedy But when they root for me You see I'm what they see I'm living in the sin it's how it's gonna be I heard the boy is sinnin and they die for me (Verse) Wadadadang wadadadang Well you coming on the dance And now we shaped up our game Wadadadang wadadadang And you know we never ever stop Beat them to the end See them on top on them Willin them, killing them And then one after See it Run to it when nobody asked to be drop off When we on my bred Snoop Lion Meets his blessing love and honor To what we are apart And to what we are even You know say it all we all prosper News flash pick a little ash Every website and blog Snoop and Busta in the studio Hanging out here, get a little bit of snap on Don't ever get it twisted See we gifted when togheter Reincarnated Snoop Lion so let's see out forever (Pre-Hook) I ain't got the remedy But when they root for me You see I'm what they see I'm living in the sin it's how it's gonna be I heard the boy is sinnin and they die for me (Hook) Somebody help me wake up And make it rain on my head Let it rain, let it rain, let it rain on my head

Set it free, so complete, everything has come to ending

Let it breathe

(Verse)

When the background clears
And you're the one standing there
You're running out of time
You're praying that you make a hit
Whatever they do, whatever they do to you
Whatever they say, whatever they say to you too bad
Sound off in that Paris
Roll call in Lebanon
Many leros in Mexico
Can you hear me, the whole kingdom

(Pre-Hook)

I ain't got the remedy
But when they root for me
You see I'm what they see
I'm living in the sin it's how it's gonna be
I heard the boy is sinnin and they die for me

(Hook)

Somebody help me wake up
And make it rain on my head
Let it rain, let it rain, let it rain on my head
Set it free, so complete, everything has come to ending
Let it breathe
