The Only Noise

Snow Patrol

It's not perfect but it's from the first take It's the one that I did with you here It seems careless that I shouldn't care less But it's the only noise I have of yours

I'm so tired because you've been so fired up And there was no keeping up with you. It's no triumph I knew I was for the high jump But I delighted in my best mistake.

I only thought of me. I only thought of me. Now you're all I see. Now you're all I see.

Reading backwards I see where the attack was Which in real time came out of the blue. It's the weakness that I love this bleakness Over any constant happiness.

Shake me out of this. Take me out of this. Carry me with love. Bury me in love.
