

Where We Are

Snow Tha Product

I caught my buzz then I think about you
But when I look at all my texts I see you know just what to do
I hope you're reading all the rest so by the time I even get to yours
I'm like I think I'm fairly fine, ain't got nothing to do
But I do and I try
To keep myself away from you for the night
'Cause I know that if I
Keep playin with fire I'mma have to decide

And I don't even think I want to
'Cause I know what I'd do
'Cause I know it's about to touch me when I think about you
'Cause see I'm not type to start something then not see it through
So you may get it hard to take it when I start with you
Now you tryna jump into nothing right now
So as soon as I start think it's something I know
Ain't even really tryna get involved, and you callin and I'm oh
Like fuck it, let's drink together, I'm down

And when I'm kinda faded
But you have to come and say then
Yea where we are
Where we are
I'm gonna start to say shit
And when it's getting later
I don't know where we are
Where we are

(2x):

But when the drinks get to clinking baby (it's alright)
You start to tell me what you're thinkin lately (is that right?)
'Cause we both rather turn up than try to get turned down
It's better to have fun for the night

You were putting up to go although I'm takin
Textin all late like you don't know what you've been waitin
You've got me askin myself why am I enabling?
All of these feelings, man I don't know what I'm thinkin
But I just kick, I really don't know what it is
I guess that it's just persistent, think it over again
'Cause you be constantly taunting, we thinkin of you
I think it's gonna to be yaby 'cause this isn't new

And when we both get to sippin baby, you know why
This conversation comes incriminating in no mind
I think I start to feel the buzz and I keep talkin bout drugs
Even though one of us suck and I know it ain't right
And I ain't tryna jump into nothing right now
So as soon as I start thinkin something I'm out
Ain't even really tryna get involved, and you callin and I'm oh
Like fuck it, let's drink together, I'm down

And when I'm kinda faded
But you have to come and say then
Yea where we are
Where we are
I'm gonna start to say shit

And when it's getting later
I don't know where we are
Where we are
