

Count Dracula Kid!

Snow White's Poison Bite

You think I'm evil 'cause I'm thirsty and I'm sucking your blood
Love me or hate me if I could bite your neck then I would
My fangs are sharp and I'll be pushing them into your veins
Your crucifix won't work on me today

You said I couldn't
I couldn't be the things I've become
Look at me now as I stand up in front of everyone
You doubted me
Quit telling me that I can't be strong
'Cause I'm the vampire who's immortal you're the dead no one

You're just a dead no one!

You think I'm gone but you should know I'm only out when it's dark
Love me or hate me you still push wooden stakes in my heart
The casket creaks as I rise up out of this coffin case
I won't give up and you should know I can't be slayed

You said I couldn't
I couldn't be the things I've become
Look at me now as I stand up in front of everyone
You doubted me
Quit telling me that I can't be strong
'Cause I am strong
