

So Cinderella

Snow White's Poison Bite

You say love stories are just for fools
Because this story is cursed by fairy dust
Dead in the end, this end was made for you
Fairytale can be so cruel
A happy ending is lost for you

You say love stories are just for fools
Because this story cursed roses with poisonous thorns
Dying to live, this life is dead for you
Fairytale can be so cruel
Oh darling glass slippers can break

Love stories are just for fools
Fairytale can be so cruel
A happy ending was made, made for

So Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart

Slashed, cut, ripped and teard

Torn to peaces but no one cares
Slashed, cut, ripped and teard
Torn to peaces but no one cares

You've got to find forever to love forever
And never ever say never because love stories can come true
Can come true
And when ever hearts are broken never evers' for you
Never evers' for you
So believe in forever and fairytales can come true
Can come true

Love stories are just for fools
Fairytale can be so cruel
A happy ending is lost
So pull yourself together
Pull yourself together now

You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
