So Cinderella

Snow White's Poison Bite

You say love stories are just for fools Because this story is cursed by fairy dust Dead in the end, this end was made for you Fairytales can be so cruel A happy ending is lost for you

You say love stories are just for fools
Because this story cursed roses with poisonous thorns
Dying to live, this life is dead for you
Fairytales can be so cruel
Oh darling glass slippers can break

Love stories are just for fools Fairytales can be so cruel A happy ending was made, made for

So Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart

You've got to find forever to love forever
And never ever say never because love stories can come true
Can come true
And when ever hearts are broken never evers' for you
Never evers' for you
So believe in forever and fairytales can come true
Can come true

Love stories are just for fools Fairytales can be so cruel A happy ending is lost So pull yourself together Pull yourself together now

You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
You're so Cinderella
You've lost yourself in fairytales
Twinkle, twinkle fallingstar
Pull yourself together and don't fall apart
