

We All Know the Wedding is Over

Snow White's Poison Bite

She's getting married at the altar
And everybody knows that she's gonna pull the trigger back
Even the priest said shoot but she never ever asks
Do you like staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
It's a church for disaster and everybody knows that
She just said I really do wanna kill you
Is this the end of the groom or will she say I do
She's never ever gonna marry you

We all know the wedding is over
We all know the wedding is over
We all know that you all know
She's killing everybody in this horror show

We all know the wedding is over
We all know the wedding is over
we all know that you all know
She's killing everybody in this horror show
Let's go!

The groom's doomed he knows this wedding's crue
And he's suffering a blast from a shotgun wound
She love russian roulette before the honeymoon
Do you like staring down the barrel of a loaded gun
It's a church for disaster and everybody knows that
She just said I really do wanna kill you
Is this the of groom or will she say I do
She's never ever gonna marry you

Let's lock 'n' load 'cause my trigger finger's weak
She shoots up to kill the broken heart she seeks
The blood is spilled and the cut is deep
She loves romance with a knife and her heart can not beat

She's never ever gonna marry you
She's never ever gonna marry you
She's never ever gonna marry you!
She's never ever gonna marry you!

We all know the wedding is over
We all know the wedding is over

Go!

WE ALL KNOW THE WEDDING IS OVER

She's out to kill
She's out to kill
As this wedding's about to start
She knows this wedding's over
She knows this wedding's over

She's out to kill
She's out to kill
As this wedding's about to start
She knows this wedding's over
