

This One

Snowmine

From the highest peaks
To the valleys below
From my happiest
To the depths of my soul
I let loose a stone
And watched it fall down
No matter where it lands
But only where I am

This one's for money
This one's for love
This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of
This one's for greed
Another for affection
How can I live without natural selection?
Let us fade away and make time for another day.

Yeah we crossed the lake
Hoping to see something
And you told me last year, that the fish were here.
Now look at my embarrassment! I led us into a trap.
I put us right on a mirror, and we can't get out.

This one's for money
This one's for love
This one's for taking everything that I've dreamed of
This one's for greed
Another for affection
How can I live without natural selection?
Let us fade away and make time for another day.
