

Tidal Wave

Snowmine

I've been running alone in slow motion
You're waiting back home but you're breathless
And I've been looking for someone to love
While you've been looking for someone you loved

We toss and we turn our oceans
You're walking back home and you're breathless
'Cuz you've been looking for someone to be someone you lost
And I just wanted to hold you, to hold you when you were lost

But you hit me like a tidal wave
I can hardly run
And I couldn't scape

I get the feeling that you're far away
But I can feel the earthquake

Cuz when you shake, I shake me, shake me, shake
When you shake, I shake me, shake me, shake
Try not to wonder if I'm making mistakes
Or I'll be broken when the wave breaks (wave breaks)

I love how you're afraid of talking too much
But I'm just afraid of not saying enough
I try to keep quiet when I'm thinking too much
Just let you sedate me
But isn't this crazy

We just went from strangers to friends
And how long it's been?
Now friends to lovers
And we're undercovers
Can't seem to stop letting us break while the water washed over my own
Better
