

It's getting late
Apologies disintegrate
Wasn't this such a great night?
Blue stars don't seem so bright,
When everything you see is in black and white
And everyone paints their pictures in such beautiful colors, no w
But mine's faded

If I ran all night,
I still wouldn't be far enough
Can't you see I'm dying,
Trying
Wait for me to show
That's it for me
Sleep.
