Bibles and Guns

Sodom

They want to see our castles burning, false religions from a wicked spell Commit crimes in ice-cold blood, the tortured souls to dwell Born dead creatures live again, paralyzed to kill themselves Reality that disappears: forever buried dreams |The hate is spreading far away Bibles and guns! |Or in the neighbourhood maybe Bibles and guns! |When even life\'s collapse begins Bibles and guns! |Just what we need: Bibles and guns! Seems like a monumental struggle of good and mighty evil Everlasting devastation until the death redeemed Born dead creatures live again, paralyzed to kill themselves Reality that disappears: forever buried dreams |The hate is spreading far away Bibles and guns! |Or in the neighbourhood maybe Bibles and guns! |When even life\'s collapse begins Bibles and guns! |Just what we need: Bibles and guns! The debris covered our hope to sleep the endless sleep Peace no longer rest in my brain, my victim just for me Born dead creatures live again, paralyzed to kill themselves Reality that disappears: forever buried dreams |The hate is spreading far away Bibles and guns! |Or in the neighbourhood maybe Bibles and guns! |When even life\'s collapse begins Bibles and guns! |Just what we need: Bibles and guns! |The hate is spreading far away
