

City of God

Sodom

Silent calls of solitude, Waiting for decline
Delivered from their passion to spill the blood tonight
Laughing dead corruption, the truth is just a fake
Undying hate is buried into a nameless grave

Don't be afraid! Don't run away!

Their past has been divided: Emperor's sacrifice
The dead will take the reign blessed by the guns

City of God!

Crawling deep into your soul - a life that fades away
Balanced on the edge of scorn for whom you gonna pray
Terror without pity, insane and tearing minds
All wars could be forgotten when life is so unkind

Don't be afraid! Don't run away!

Their past has been divided: Emperor's sacrifice
The dead will take the reign blessed by the guns

City of God! City of God!!!

Don't be afraid! Don't run away!

Their past has been divided: Emperor's sacrifice

City of God!!!

The dead will take the reign blessed by the guns

City of God!!!
