Resurrection

Your soul disappears in eyes of blue With dignity and lonely lust The moon is shining bright to you Angels adore your mortal dust

Welcome to the paradise Great master's hands will rise To bring you to the holy place Eternal life for a human race

Resurrection Flesh to your bones Everlasting fortune You are born

Resurrection With flowers of gold Give credence to heaven Believe in god

Your spirit was willing but your flesh was weak Don't wanna leave the world of lies They're standing around when you go to sleep And give you no chance to say goodbye

Welcome to the paradise Great master's hands will rise To bring you to the holy place Eternal life for a human race
