Numbers

Who's the person That you woke up next to today If you were any older, then you'd know You'd have to pay your way Well, maybe you do already But you make out they pay you Did you ask yourself Where did love go wrong with you? Numbers Don't tell me your name I don't want to know And don't forget to take the reminders When you go Good things had to end And I was never any good at saying goodbye Because when I say goodbye A silly thing happens and I always cry Numbers You're looking so thin these days Are you doing speed? (No, numbers) Have you seen your face? Now you're really going seed (Playing numbers) Doing a nine to five in the day And you never know their names Because names make a person real And there's no real people in these games Numbers, pass them on and pass them by Numbers, never hold a good thing down for long Numbers, throw 'em away like Kleenex Numbers, pick them up and push them away Numbers Oh numbers Until you wake up one day And find that you're a number Until you wake up one day And find that you're a number Until you wake up one day And find that you're a number Until you wake up one day And find that you're a number

Body one, body two, body three, body four Body one, body two, body three, body four Numbers Soft Cell