SOHN

Oh Father release me
My bones feel like stone
And I know when the game is up
It's up.

It's obvious
The universe
Is trying to tell me to let go
I'm sorry but
I'm giving up
I'm giving up

And I feel some release now I know
And I love you but I really have to go

My fate
My fate don't mean a thing
My fate
My fate don't mean a thing

Oh mother believe me
I know what his means
And it's easy
I see no other way

It's obvious
The universe
Is trying to tell me to let go
I'm sorry but
I'm giving up
I'm giving up

And I feel some release now I know
And I love you but I really have to go

My fate
My fate don't mean a thing
My fate
My fate don't mean a thing.
