

Still Waters

SOHN

Strong be the sun, still be the waters that run

Let him be one to silence the storm

Uhm

Steady his sails, lend him the light to prove veil

Where other fade, and fall to the dark

Be the one father's call, keep him safe from the cold when he's on his own

Be the love he desires, be the fuel to his fire and lead him ho me

Strong be the sun, still be the waters that run

Let him be one to silence he storm

Uhm

Where other fail, and fall to the dark

Strong be the sun

Strong be the sun

Strong be the sun

Strong be the sun, still be the waters that run

Let him be one to silence he storm

Uhm

Steady his sails, lend him the light to prove veil

Where other fail, and fall to the dark
