

Warnings

SOHN

I know it's late but I'd Like to know
How you want to play this out
The chemistry that you're
Letting go
Could have brought a change about

If it suddenly comes back
To haunt us
I know I
I did my best
If collectively we heed the warnings
We'll be fine

Hesitation be
Hell, be gone
You take the wind out of my sails
A cleaner slate on a blank page
Let the natural come out

If it suddenly comes back
To haunt us
I know I
I did my best
If collectively we heed the warnings
We'll be fine
