

Falter

SOIL

End
Way
Falter

i haven't rendered this to anyone before the book is open and its spilling on the floor comes once again
I'm buried in sin
all hope is gone

way
falter

falling down again

way
falter

feeling down again

waves come crashing ever lasting this amount of pain forever changing, anticipating the same mistakes I've made it comes once again

I'm buried in sin

way
falter

falling down again

way
falter

feeling down again

feeling down again

I'm feeling down again

way
falter

falling down again

way

falter

feeling down again
(I'm feeling down again)

way

falter
(I'm falling down)
