

Little Liar

SOiL

All my life all your lies burning you through and through
All your ways somehow you play the victim
Turning all the truths into myth wrapped up in fiction
What lies inside what's inside what lies in
You taught me well taught me how to hide the secrets
I learned so well learned how to be this wicked
Little white lie little lie little liar you

Dear mother oh little liar you
Your Jesus oh little liar you
Sweet lover oh little liar you
Cross the line you

See all the ways all your ways your ways are
You remain unseen but your ways they are your mission
Laugh at the ants just clowns within your system
Remain so bold a lesson I'm not missing
I got you I was a student now your victim
Little white lie little lie little liar you

Dear mother oh little liar you
Your Jesus oh little liar you
Sweet lover oh little liar
Cross the line you
You through and through you

All my life all your lies burning you through and through
I got you I got you student turned victim

Dear mother oh little liar you
Your Jesus oh little liar you
Sweet lover oh little liar
Cross the line you

Dear mother oh little liar you
Your Jesus oh little liar you
Sweet lover oh little liar
Cross the line you
