

Picture Perfect

SOiL

Too long
This has been done

It's hiding
But something is wrong

Pretend not to see it
The vision that feel it
I turn my head once more

Wipe the tears from my eyes
I feel it's no surprise

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever

Too late
The damage is done

Helpless
I was too young

And though i mean it
I pray to believe it
Just lying to myself

And so i paint what i want
The color to blacken my heart

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever
After all

Nothing is as it seems
I'm lost in this dream
Nothing is as it seems, yeah

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever

Picture perfect
It's not worth it
Nothing rules forever

Picture perfect
Picture perfect

Nothing lasts forever
After all
