

Surrounded

SOiL

Everything
Is closing in
Won't this emptiness
It's surrounding me
With everything i feel i just know
Is changing me

Yeah, and i feel surrounded
It doesn't matter where i go
Cause i just can't sleep
Without you here

I just wanted you to know
That you leave me weak
And i feel frail
I'm surrounded

Memories
Are finding me
All of these rusted chains are pulling me down
Feels like it's killing me
And i feel surrounded

It doesn't matter where i go
Cause i just can't sleep
Without you here

I just wanted you to know
That you leave me weak
And i feel frail
I'm surrounded

You know i feel surrounded

I'm calling my feelings again
They're hanging out inside my head
It's in there breathing out exhaust
The walls are closing in again

It doesn't matter where i go
Cause i just can't sleep
Without you here

I just wanted you to know
That you leave me weak
And i feel frail

It doesn't matter where i go
'Cause i just can't sleep
Without you here
(It's killing me)

I just wanted you to know
That you leave me weak
And i feel frail
I'm surrounded
