Swallowhole

Soilent Green

Murderer, absorbed in your flame To captors mind the eyes are dim to close Vicious attempt to let this pain be shown

My breath knotted (grasping for air through lust)

Distinctively crimson a wonder of wretchedness Taste my thoughts Of untold taboo Avoid caress Touch of rape

The saliva from your lips is glossy Shown questioned faces gain an erotic taste To die a thousand times before dying Pray once and die a thousand more

Broken puzzle Missing pieces Choking words

Murdering this sweet innocence Saving from these evil needs Tortured by a needless soul I'm someone to protect you Using all that's left for warmth Inserting into bloodied orifices Pale skin before the light Pale skin after the night

Fondling yourself, look at me with deepness Enrage myself being for masturbation

Anger strides with swift motion of hurt Feeding this grin of displeasure The stepping-stones of lust are drowned Licking the scars of your fate

Background flashing with intensity

Speechless figure With blindfold on Hands are removed

Silhouette pulsing with deviance

The moral part a canvas I am the artist You are my creation

Red shocks this vulgar picture

Cyprian angels mourning Condemned to weep impure Kindred of the plenty Whores that do touch night Our night of passion Caress you with love Cut your neck with words To fuck is rebirth

Shower me with cynical words from the lips Orgasmic thrust with the help of strangling Arranging the use to position the body Hunger for more than this carnal meat

She was innocent, she was in love Hate is a step, to take her life

Love makes weakness, all these sins To fuck is death, to fuck is pure
