

A Predator's Portrait

Soilwork

A lesson in democracy, I will never, never be
A servant of a moral standard, a rebel soul for the free
I scream and I burn, I deny what I've learned
Can't fight what's inside on this blasphemous ride
Here I stand!

'Cause he will remain, will remain the same
He's a part of the game and he will remain

As I cry for more, the angels burn their core
Let the evil saints have their way when I'm heading for oblivio n
Achieving my goals in everyway in malicious ways I hail insane
Nevertheless my broken promises, I scream and I burn, I deny wh at
I've learned can't fight what's inside on this blasphemous ride
Here I fall

'Cause he will remain, will remain the same
He's a part of the game and he will remain
'Cause he will remain, will remain the same
He's a part of the game and he will remain

Come watch me bleed one more time
No substitute left to find
All that I hear is what I preach
A mighty soul is what I keep

I step on the face whose dragging me down
Fed up with the precious talk
Like a sinner revealing himself again
Now his down and out and ready to strike

'Cause he will remain, will remain the same
He's a part of the game and he will remain
'Cause he will remain, will remain the same
He's a part of the game and he will remain