

Resisting the Current

Soilwork

Did you come to witness my downfall?
Did you come to see my demise?

Back to where the mothership landed
Back to where the panic arose
Back to all that I once transcended
Back to where the innocence glows

And that door is always open
And that path will always drag me down
Beneath the waves- watch me slip away

All I need is a new heart beating
And I'm ready to die again
All I need is to hear your breathing
And I'm ready to follow you down
All the way
Right to the very end
As I die again

I have tried resisting the current
Dug my feet deep down in the dirt
I have tried to live with the silence
But it cuts much deeper than words

I have tried to find a way to Make your name unspoken
I have tried to reach the surface
Just before the tide

And that door is always open
And that path will always drag me down
Beneath the waves- watch me slip away

All I need is a new heart beating
And I'm ready to die again
All I need is to hear your breathing
And I'm ready to follow you down
All the way
Right to the very...

All I need is a new heart beating
And I'm ready to die again
All I need is to hear your breathing
And I'm ready to follow you down

All I need is a new heart beating
And I'm ready to die again
All I need is to hear your breathing
And I'm ready to follow you down
All the way
Right to the very...
