

Shadow Child

Soilwork

I lick the surface of a freedom ride Under a hammering light....I scream!!! Let's roll the dice of the future, burning in my hand, I've built destrucion upon the velvet skies Maybe I'm strong, maybe I'm wrong

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled bu your faith in disguise Shadowside - reflecting the eyes (3x)

I'm raising hell, a magic spell Pain and pleasure together as one, I will recall,I will recall When I'm down the stairs....I spit human cries,I can feel when they lie My sun being one with the...universe Hear my call

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled bu your faith in disguise
Shadowside - reflecting the eyes

Creating my crown from the millions of lights I'm abused beyond recognition Pre-Millenium futuristic I predict you all to live Under an individual sun We're all collecting our senses and run...

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled bu your faith in disguise, Shadow side - reflecting the eyes, Lead us, Shadowchild
- the truth's lying far from your life, Shadowside - reflecting the eyes...
