

I felt the urge of knowing despite the fear of who I am where the truth stands tall and where nothing is a sin is there anything more that tells me where to begin with nothing to guide me except a poisoned well I let the demons rest and believe myself redeem myself!

Life's not a bigger than this
I'm sorry but you have to leave
You have been deceived
now just wake up your belief don't worry, you wont stand a chance as a broken man...

Just like you...

I wanna know if time will capture the scars I've worn just let me hold the future for once out of my daily life I can't reject what's obviously wrong cause I'm blind, selfishly blind selfishly blind

Life's not a bigger than this
I'm sorry but you have to leave
You have been deceived
now just wake up your belief
don't worry, you wont stand a chance
as a broken man..

Just like you...

Life's not bigger than this
You have been deceived
now just wake up your belief
as a broken man...

Life's not bigger than this
now just wake up your belief
as a broken man...

Get it right!
