

My Enemy

SoKo

I've shared my bed with you
I've shared my kisses with you
I've shared my pussy with you
I've shared my life with you
I've shared my dreams with you
I've shared my kisses with you
I've shared my friends with you
I've shared my movies with you
I've shared everything with you

But you, to pull away from me you took, what I had in me you took everything from me and you ran away

Now you're my enemy
Now you're my enemy, you're the guy
I don't wanna see or I might turn crazy
Now you're my enemy
Now, you're my enemy
Now you're my enemy so don't, come by me

I've shared my past with you
I've shared my fears with you
I've shared all my thoughts with you
I've shared my occasions with you
I've shared my music with you
I've shared all my songs with you
I've shared my home with you
I've shared my tears with you
I've shared every single thing with you

Now you're my enemy
Now, you're my enemy
Now you're my enemy
Now, you're my enemy
You're my enemy
You're my enemy
