

People Always Look Better In the Sun

SoKo

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today it was a sunny day.

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today i crossed this way.

People always look better in the sun.

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today it was a sunny day.

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today i crossed this way.

People always look better in the sun.

And i can see in the back of your eyes, That i have to choose another time, To say whats on my mind. I have to choose another time, To say whats on my mind. I have to choose another time, To say that...

People always look better in the sun.

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today it was a sunny day.

I thought it doesnt matter, He's ugly anyway, But today i crossed this way.

People always look better in the sun.

It's just a sunny day. Probably not the good day, To say what's in my heart.
