

Why Don't You Eat Me Now You Can

SoKo

Why don't you eat me now you can It would be better than to stand The look you give me that makes me feel Like I don't belong here

And you want some fresh meat So why don't you bite me Then either way you'll hurt me Physically and mentally

Take a picture of me In your head When I'm dead Cause you won't forget about me I will scream in your dreams

So why don't you eat me now you can Eat me now Eat me now Eat me
