

T.O.N.Y.

Solange

Tony don't call no more
Don't have it on more
Maybe there is something wrong with his phone
Maybe it's mornin' and the thrill is gone

And I'm not sure
That I'm still respected
And I'm not in a rush
To fill rejected, not by Tony

Tony don't care no more
He doesn't want me there no more
I just want to know what I did wrong
Damn, this would make a real good song

I don't have these nights too often
I wish I could take my mind off him
But I really like Tony

And he wasn't just some regular guy
Tony, actually the other night, oh why?

I could've been in love by now
If it wasn't for Tony
I could've been in love by now
If it wasn't for Tony

Me and Tony don't speak no more
It almost been a week, oh no
My how time goes so fast
But I still refuse to call his ass

I remember the way that I reacted
And today is even more attractive
But I really miss Tony

Then Tony call me one day
He said that he just called to say, hey
And it wasn't until he called me back
That I realized I needed more than that
I'm a love wiser and a little older
Hey baby, it was nice to know ya, good bye, Tony

Still he wasn't just some regular guy
Tony actually the other night, oh why?

I could've been in love by now
If it wasn't for Tony
I could've been in love by now
If it wasn't for Tony

I don't go with yesterday no more
Now I'm feeling free
(I'm feeling free)
Today and tomorrow told me

(What they said?)

That's where I should be
That's where I should be

(So I'm moving)
I'm moving
(So I'm moving on)
I'm going, can't wait forever
(I'm moving on)

I'm going
(So I'm moving on)
I'm leaving
I miss you, baby

Still he wasn't just some regular guy
Tony is actually the other night

If it wasn't for Tony
