

Here I Am

Soldiers of Jah Army

She calls me when I'm in town, I pretend I'm not around but she sees on her screen I am, so here I am, here I am.
She don't call me one and only, No, she just calls me when She gets lonely something I do gets her there, so feel better and get well..

There's no love without this pain there's no one time without again And there's no way that I am what she needs now - I'm just a passing glance not a for sure, but a chance and there's no way that I am What she sees now...

Backwards now and were back again sideways just to find our friends on this road is chaning every thing i Know upside down inside my head, let's just talk about something else The sun gets brighter and takes me along...

On these curtains never close there's only one way that this goes we turn in cricles and we lose our places new faces around, but no replace ments I've found...
Can we just find a way to go back home
