

About Your Funeral

Sóley

We dressed her up in that yellow dress you gave her
Remember what you said to her
Remember what you said to her
The story about your...

I sat in the dark room playing that song you loved so much
The wind was blowing and the house was laughing
And the house was knocking on the living room's door
You came in and sang with me that song you love
We were joined by the band, they played the harps and strings f or us

Did you know that the story's true that I told you?
I know you told her
So I cross my fingers and hope for the best
We made you a song, it was about your funeral
We dressed you up and told you to come closer

Your family will take you
Your family will take you
Your family will take you
Your family will take you

Do you remember that girl who played that song for you?
We dressed her up in that yellow dress you gave her
Remember what you said to her
Remember what you said to her
The story about your
The story about your funeral.

Now you know the story is true that I told you
It's true we dressed you up and you came closer
Your family will take you
Your family will take you
Your family will take you
Your family will take you

You're right, we took you
You're right, we took you
You're right, we took you
You're right, we took you.
