

21 and Invincible

Something Corporate

Some days go by, i wish i was famous or maybe religious, so i could go to heaven just like you i can have a big house, complain about taxes payoff my ex'es, ain't that living no one makes fun of me, cause i can't stand up for myself woah, 21 and invincible woah, can't wait to screw this up and woah, 21 and invincible i'm in power for the hour guess today's gonna blow us away i've got a girlfriend she tells me she needs me and she loves me we'll probably get married oh no, and everyone will bit their tongues so hard they'll bleed when mom hears this song she'll tell me im crazy and she'll say to me

"son youre much too fun, go have some fun don't waste your youth like i did"

i'm in power for the hour
i guess today's gonna blow us away and it's been autumn since the day that i met you if i had bottomed, i'd crawl out alone and i dont wish you know the secrets of summer at all
