

You Only Hide

Something for Kate

So i keep watch
And you keep breaking
Breaking formation to become
Someone else
And your eyes become corridors
Where i wander with a candle
Calling out to you

And you only hide
Because you know i'll find you

You say you just want to feel
The way you used to feel
The way you should feel
And i wander through
The lost city of you

And you only hide because you know i'll find you
