

Head first, chest hurts, never thought it'd get worse [x2]

You say you hate me for what I did
But how can you blame me for choosing this?
Now everything's faster, more money spent
You think that I'm happy except I'm losing here

Baby, baby come back, you were the only friend
That seemed to see past all of that bull
I'm a reckless disaster, you're the innocent
It's like I'm on track, crash, I'm falling in, I'm falling in

Head first, chest hurts, never thought it'd get worse
Let the bottle pour it in, drown out all these mess ups
Let's just go back, can the story replay
To that day that you prayed that I'd never stray away, oh no
Wish I never strayed away, oh no

You gave me an option, you let me chose
Believed in the music and what I do
But you wanted a promise, to stay true
Except that this ain't a contest, you aren't a fool

Baby, baby come back you were the only one
That's full of pain but so full of us
Stuck in this heartache like it's a drug
You're lost and I'm back, crash
I'm falling off, I'm falling off

Head first, chest hurts, never thought it'd get worse
Let the bottle pour it in, drown out all these mess ups
Let's just go back, can the story replay
To that day that you prayed that I'd never stray away, oh no
Wish I never strayed away, oh no, oh no no no no no

Wish I never strayed away, never strayed away
Through with empty promises, I never should of made
Wish I never strayed away, never strayed away
Through with empty promises, I never should of made

What I traded, what I waited for my whole damn life
No debated, you were jaded, thought you'd be my wife
Whoa, whoa, and it feels like I'm crashing down
And it feels, and it feels, and it feels like I'm crashing down

Head first, chest hurts, never thought it'd get worse [x2]

Head first, chest hurts, never thought it'd get worse
Let the bottle pour it in, drown out all these mess ups
Let's just go back, can the story replay
To that day that you prayed that I'd never stray away, oh no
Wish I never strayed away, oh no, oh no no no no no
