

The Only One

SoMo

The girl who loves me
Prays I'll never get famous
Thinks that when I do
I'll just fly around aimless
Touching all the bodies
Of the ones remained nameless
While she's holding on
To a previous engagement

But I love her,
And she loves me.
Can't help the man I was,
Or could be.
Baby please, just trust me
When I say that you're the only one above these
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me

You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me

The girl who loves me
Takes the fame that I came with
Wishing on a star
I'll stop acting so brainless
I question myself,
Why the hell can't I attain this
Wandering around,
Like a bird being caged in

But I love her,
And she loves me.
Can't help the man I was,
Or could be.
Baby please, just trust me
When I say that you're the only one above these
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me

You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me

The girl who loves me
Hopes that I can be
Everything that she wants
Everything she needs
The girl who loves me
Hopes that we can be
Everything that she wants
Everything she needs
Hopes that I can be
Everything that she wants
Everything she needs
The girl who loves me
Hopes that we can be
Everything that she wants
Everything she needs

For me...

You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
You're the only one,
You're the only one,
You're the only one for me
