

Rising

Son Lux

Are we bursting from the ashes?
All things yearning for the push?
Can you hear the ever groaning?
Shedding hours we have become?

We are rising suns
We are rising suns

What things will linger?
Only in memory
Clocks tick, hands don't move
What tongues can whisper of coming remedy?
We are the rising suns
What tongues can whisper of coming remedy?
We are the rising suns

Are we bursting from the ashes?
All things yearning for the push?
Can you hear the ever groaning?
Shedding hours we have become?

We are rising suns

What things will linger?
Held by the memory
Clocks tick, hands removed
What lungs can hold it?
Push out the melody
We are the rising suns

Are we bursting from the ashes?
All things yearning for the push?
Can you hear the ever groaning?
Shedding hours we have become?

We are rising suns
We are rising suns
We are rising suns
We are rising suns
We are rising suns
We are rising suns

We are rising suns
