

This Time

Son Lux

(Now) Now the wind
Now a voice it carries
You were the one this time
(You are the one this time)
(Now) Now a breath
Now a name I'm calling
Yours is the one this time
(You are the one this time)
(Now) (You are the one this time)
(You are the one this time)
(You are the one this time)
(You are the...)

Hear the wall inside you
Shouting overturned
Lord of all the [?] I fear

Now the wind
Now a voice it carries
I know the one this time
(You are the one this time)
Now a breath
Now a name you're calling
Mine is the one this ti-i-i-me

We are the dead and dying
Shouting overturned
All the noise we're making now
Hear the wall inside you
Shouting overturned
All the noise we're making now

(We are the ones)
(We are the ones)
(This time)
(We are the ones)
(We are the ones)
(This time)
(Now) (Now) (This time)
This time
This time
This time
This time
This time, now
This time, now
This time, now
This time, now

We are the dead and dying
Shouting overturned
All the noise we're making now
Hear the war inside you
Shouting overturned
All the noise we're making now, oh

We are the ones this time
We are the ones this time

We are the ones this ti-i-i-me
This moment
This moment
This moment
Everything, everything
