

Go Right Ahead

Sondre Lerche

Her name is not crucial
Could be Katherine
I'm not holding grudges
I might have been
If I have no choice I guess I'll still be here tomorrow
Passing through the corridors of dim and fleeting sorrows
Counting down the classes of inevitable heartbreak
Puppy love's the frosting on a constant ice cream headache

Anybody wanna try now
You go right ahead now
I don't wanna waste your time
Anybody wanna try me
You go right ahead
We're gonna wanna change our minds

I think I know all things
For example
I know I know nothing
Oh lord, what a glorious save
You made my day
Calculating steps across the pond onto the back seat
Wearing something multi-colored desperately distracting
Stepping off the bus avoiding meltdown elegantly
If you wanna party you gotta RSVP

Anybody wanna try now
You go right ahead now
I don't wanna waste your time
Anybody wanna tell me
You go right ahead
We're gonna wanna change our minds

Oh lord, what a glorious save
You made my day

Anybody wanna try now
You go right ahead now
I don't wanna waste your time
Anybody wanna tell me
You go right ahead
We're gonna wanna change our minds
You don't mind anymore
You don't mind anymore
You don't mind anymore
You don't mind anymore
