

My Hands Are Shaking

Sondre Lerche

My hand are shaking
From carrying this torch
From carrying this torch for you

My lips are bleeding
From kissing you goodbye
From kissing you goodbye every night

My sheets are tearing
From sleeping in too long
From sleeping in too long with you

My hands are shaking
From carrying this torch
From carrying this torch for you

My head is where
It's always been
If only I'd know where

My feet can't stand
That ground no more
It seems that I don't care

My hands are shaking
From carrying this torch
From carrying this torch for you

My lips are bleeding
From kissing you goodbye
From kissing you goodbye every night

My heart is pounding
Yes, yes, yes
My mind just second guess

My love is so
Articulate
But I am such a mess

My hands are shaking
From carrying this torch
From carrying this torch for you

My lips are bleeding
From kissing you goodbye
From kissing you goodbye
It's all that I do

My sheets are tearing
From sleeping in too long
From sleeping in too long with you

My hands are shaking
From carrying this torch
From carrying this torch for you
