

The Old Black Hen

Songs: Ohia

Old Black Hen is that you again singing the Bad Luck Lullaby Come right on in , it's midnight again
Time for the Bad Luck Lullaby
You know the one it's the same one you sung when you wrote down the Revelations Now sing it over the cradle of the child who's born next Leave all the truth in so they know what comes next leave in the true love that they'll never find Show how we're looking for it all of our lives
When I saw the Banner hanging over my door I already knew who the party was for All of my pain found a partner in that room and the devil's tail swayed with the tune Make that Black Record
Roll the tapes all night long
Make that Black Record
And we'll all sing along Look down the long street and see who's that crying Tell them that every day I lived I was trying to sing the Blues the way I find them
