

Why Are We Stopping In The Storm

Songs: Ohia

a resolute moment returns and that's how close I got to you it's as red as the target heart even the sky's been influenced by you and it ends all that doubt it's true for any or all of us there's never a good night to be everything I've ever loved is here tonight or the wish that it was here tonight (is here tonight) everything that you need for truth is here tonight or at least the wish for it is here tonight and I am taken my chance here tonight on that target heart it is red as the target's heart even the sky was influenced by you see how the self can be made and remade(x2) but the truth can either be made but can't be remade love can't be made or remade
