

Dub For Oil

Sonic Boom Six

Come on down! And welcome to the show
Bid-di-bid-di-bid-di burst your bubble, it looks like Global trouble
Beards, WMD's and chemicals that cause disease,
So step right up, we've got them all on Trading Blood for Oil

Prepare for the thrills and spills they're calling Collateral damage
The price of the life of an Iraqi, is less than Texas tea.
A few of the population, for Global domination,
Its Friday night so come on down the price is right.

Its time to sit back and enjoy the show.
Liberation dropping like bombs,
Credit Card donations welcome
Revenue in the sand and the soil
We're trading blood for oil.
24/7 see it blow by blow
Here we go for the bonus round
Is it food or a bomb on the box on the ground?
A lucky dip in the sand and the soil
We're trading blood for oil.

You can lead a horse to the water but you'll never make it ask for proof
The public believe anything that isn't founded on the truth
I'll never die for my beliefs cos, hey I might be wrong
But I'll be strong enough to take a stand today and say 'HEY!'

No time for facts or fiction, War for peace is a contradiction
In terms, like a fuck for virginity, doesn't matter to the holy trinity
The father, the son and Tony Blair want revenge so Saddam beware
The stars of the show are coming for you right here on pay-per-view

So just Just roll up, roll up
We neglect to mention, America's Samaritary intervention
In the Congo, Chile and Nicaragua
And now a word from our Sponsor.
