

Black Hole Halo

Sonic Syndicate

Together with desolation
To fall deep in love with a bullet
In battle with your condition
A burden so condemned you revere it

So what is wrong with ordinary?
It's all you really need
But this obsession with oblivion
Is gonna take you down with me

Halo, halo
Just how low can you go
The walls are caving in
And all that's left is black holes
Halo, halo
So keep holding on to that grudge you chose
Let the chaos in and see
What happens to your soul

We lock the aftermath in a cage
Just to see how much you can take
I got a few questions to god
Like: tell me what is life?

Awaken me
Awaken me

Too long I've been trapped inside these walls
A recluse from the world
Damnation since the day that I was born

Halo, halo
Just how low can you go
The walls are caving in
And all that's left is black holes
Halo, halo
So keep holding on to that grudge you chose
Let the chaos in and see
What happens to your soul

I won't go peacefully hand in hand
To the promised land
Just to be double-crossed
I know you think I was out to get you
Steal your power, your creation
I spit in your face
You are my enemy
And nothing you say can change
I won't apologize for the envy
I'll never stop being all that I can be

How low can you go?

Halo, halo

Halo, halo
So keep holding on to that grudge you chose
Let the chaos in and see
