

love has come to stay in all the way it's gonna stay forever and everyday
it feels like a wish coming true it feels like an angel dreaming of you
it feels like heaven forgiving and getting it feels like a fading celebrating
gonna call them spirits grey I'm gonna laugh it up
you
gotta cotton crown
I'm gonna keep it underground.
your gonna take control of the chemistry
your gonna manifest the mystery you've got a magic wheel in your memory
I'm wasted in time and I'm looking everywhere I don't care where angels are dreaming of you NYC is forever king
I'm wasted
in time
and your never ready fading fading celebrating I've got your Kotton Krown.
