

Pattern Recognition

Sonic Youth

I'm a cool hunter making you my way
Like a brand name you'll replay
I will know you, I won't show you
Yeah, yeah

You're the one
You're the one
You're the one
You're the one

Heat seeking missile freak
Black magic scared to speak
I will know you, I won't show you
Yeah, yeah

Will you buy me a shaky heart?
Lust brigade has torn me apart
I will know you, I won't show you
Yeah, yeah

You're the one
You're the one
You're the one
You're the one

Can you sell me yesterday's girl?
'Cuz everyday I feel more like her
Oh baby, baby, please don't go
Pattern recognition is coming down slow

Like a cool hunter watch the disarray
Keep your secret footage head away
I will know you, I won't show you
Yeah, yeah

Close your eyes and feel the fun
Pattern recognition's on the run
I will know you, I won't show you
Yeah, yeah, yeah

You're the one
You're the one
You're the one
You're the one
