

Everything To Me

Sonicflood

Do I honor You with words
Or do I walk a thousand miles
To show You what Your worth
In all I say in all I do

I?m ever short of You
With empty hands I come
A beggars song, I sing to You

You are my cup, You are my bread
You?re the spotless lamb, the great 'I Am'
You are my King, You are my peace
You?re the air I breathe
You're everything, You?re everything to me

Am I standing only ankle deep
Or do I fear the crashing waves
Afraid that I may sink
Draw me to the deepest place

That I might worship You
With empty hands I come
A beggars song, I sing to You

You are my cup, You are my bread
You?re the spotless lamb, the great 'I Am'
You are my King, You are my peace
You?re the air I breathe
You're everything

You are my cup, You are my bread
You?re the spotless lamb, the great 'I Am'
You are my King, You are my peace
You?re the air I breathe
You're everything

You are my cup, You are my bread
You?re the spotless lamb, the great 'I Am'
You are my King, You are my peace
You?re the air I breathe
You're everything, You?re everything to me
You?re everything to me
