

Love Of My Life

Sonicflood

You know me very well
More than I know myself
You know the frailness of my frame
And still You show Your love
In measures deep and wide
The kindness of a king who saves
Lead me onward towards the cross
I give myself to You
That I may know You more
You're the love of my life
You're the arms open wide
I know Your presence is here in this place
Lord I surrender all that I am
To the love of my life
Knowing my heart would fail
You made a way for me
You died to set this captive free
In this You've shown Your love
Within my darkest hour
That's why my prayer will always be
